MEMORANDUM

TO: District Staff
FROM: Mark R. Geyer, Superintendent
DATE: June 3, 2011
SUBJECT: 2011-2012 Employees of the Year

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read "Mark R. Geyer", is written over the "FROM:" line of the memorandum.

Congratulations to our 2011-2012 Employees of the Year!

Teacher of the Year

Peter Raisbeck

5th Grade Teacher

Olive Grove

Peter is a fifth grade teacher at Olive Grove Elementary School. Peter's everyday use of exceptional teaching strategies in the classroom, his organization of extracurricular activities for students, and the valuable relationships he has built with students, new teachers and other staff members alike, make Peter stand out as an exemplary teacher. As a GATE and GLAD certified teacher, he regularly implements these instructional strategies in his every day teaching as well. Peter is not only dedicated to the students, but has helped to build a myriad of programs and activities in the area of Fine Arts.

Co-Classified Employees of the Year

Lynette Jorgens

Health Assistant

District Office

Lynette is the Health Assistant for the District. She works at all ten schools and with many District staff to provide clerical support for health services for students. Each day she has to juggle many tasks such as monitoring immunizations, charting health screening results, maintaining medication logs, sending out letters for physicals, hearing, vision, and color vision screenings, etc. Lynette performs her job professionally and goes above and beyond each and every day.

Craig Lewis

Maintenance

District Office

Craig Lewis is a Maintenance employee for the District. His level of understanding of both site and District functions coupled with his skills and expertise as an independent contractor serve as a tremendous asset to the District. Craig works tirelessly to assist the Maintenance department in any task needed and provides wonderful customer service with a contagious, positive attitude.

Each of the award recipients will be recognized at a Board Meeting in the Fall. Congratulations to all of the recipients on a job well done and for all that they do!
